

Player Code of Conduct

All West Winnipeg Minor Baseball (WWMBA) players will govern themselves according to the following Code of Conduct, which includes but is not limited to the following:

- Players are committed to the team for the entire season and the duration of postseason.
- Players will have the appropriate uniform and equipment.
- Players will arrive prepared and on time to all games and practices.
- Players will follow the coaches' instructions and give their best effort at all games and practices.
- Players will contact their coaches if they are unable to attend games or practices and advise them with as much notice as possible.
- Players will respect teammates, coaches, game officials, opponents, parents, and facilities, and conduct themselves responsibly.
- Players will support the team in a positive and encouraging manner.
- Players will not demonstrate or encourage physical or verbal abuse toward coaches, teammates, umpires, opponents, or spectators.
- Coaches are the designated team representatives and they will be the only ones to address any issues with the umpire. Players will not argue balls, strikes, or any other judgment calls.
- Players who address a question or concern to the coach will do so in a respectful manner at an appropriate time.
- Players are responsible for their own personal property. The team is not responsible for lost or stolen personal property.
- Players will conduct themselves in an honest and respectful manner on and off the field while representing West Winnipeg Minor Baseball.
- Players are expected to remember that it is a privilege to play the game of baseball and be a member of West Winnipeg Minor Baseball.
- Players will wear their West Winnipeg Minor Baseball jersey during all games or events of competition with pride, and will project a favourable image of WWMBA.
- Players will follow ALL rules set out in the WWMBA Code of Conduct, Complaint and Discipline, and Team Travel Policies.
