Player Code of Conduct for St. Louis Lightning Sports

This Code of Conduct outlines expectations for youth in Lightning Baseball programs to ensure a fun, respectful, and safe environment. By signing, players agree to these guidelines.

Shared Goals

- Be Respectful: Treat everyone with kindness to create a positive environment.
- Play Fair: Compete honestly and follow the rules.
- Stay Safe: Prioritize safety for yourself and others.

Rules to Follow

1. Respect All: Treat players, coaches, umpires, opponents, and fans with courtesy; disrespectful behavior will not be tolerated.
2. Show Sportsmanship: Win or lose gracefully, congratulate opponents, and shake hands after games.
3. Follow Coaches: Listen to coaches' instructions on roles and strategies; bring questions or concerns to coaches privately after practices or games.
4. Give Full Effort: Hustle in practices and games, strive to improve, and never quit.
5. Support Team: Encourage teammates, prioritize team goals, and communicate positively.
6. Ensure Timely Attendance: Notify coaches of absences/tardiness as soon as possible.
7. No Unsportsmanlike Conduct: Profanity, taunting, and bullying will not be tolerated.
8. Respect Umpires: Accept umpires' calls as final without arguing or complaining.
9. Care for Equipment: Don't throw gear in frustration; keep equipment and facilities clean.
10. Play Fair: Compete honestly, avoid cheating, and show integrity.
11. Prioritize Safety: Follow safety rules, report issues, and avoid harmful actions.
12. Represent Positively: Behave in a way that reflects well on your team, league, and community, including online.
13. Dress Properly: Players are expected to follow the uniform code for the team.
14. Enjoy and Learn: Have fun, learn from mistakes, and contribute to a positive team environment.

Consequences for Violations

Violations will be handled case-by-case. Coaches will discuss issues with the player and parents. Further action may include reduced playing time, suspension, or other measures based on the violation's severity.

Your Commitment

By signing below, I agree to follow this Player Code of Conduct and support a respectful, safe, and positive environment for all in the Lightning Baseball program.

Parent Code of Conduct for St. Louis Lightning Sports

This Code of Conduct outlines expectations for parents and guardians of youth in Lightning sports programs to ensure a supportive, respectful, and safe environment. By signing, parents agree to these guidelines.

Shared Goals

- Support the Team (without coaching): Cheer for all players in order to foster a positive atmosphere, leaving coaching to the coaches.
- Model Respect: Show respect to all to set a positive example for youth.
- Ensure Safety and Fairness: Support a safe, fair environment free from disruptive behavior.

Rules to Follow

1. Respect All: Treat players, coaches, umpires, opponents, and parents with courtesy; bring concerns to coaches respectfully to resolve issues.
2. Promote Sportsmanship: Cheer positively, and celebrate team efforts; criticizing and booing will not be tolerated.
3. Respect Coaches: Accept coaches' decisions on roles, playing time, and strategies; bring questions or concerns to coaches privately after practices or games, addressing coaches first before contacting a board member.
4. Encourage Effort: Support your child and his/her teammates to give their best, focusing on growth and teamwork.
5. Foster Team Unity: Encourage your child to support his/her teammates and prioritize team goals.
6. Ensure Timely Attendance: Notify coaches of absences/tardiness as soon as possible.
7. No Unsportsmanlike Conduct: Profanity, taunting, or arguing with umpires or other parents will not be tolerated.
8. Respect Umpires: Accept umpires' calls as final; arguing or encouraging challenges will not be tolerated.
9. Uphold Fair Play: Encourage your child to play by the rules and show integrity.
10. Prioritize Safety: Support safety guidelines, report concerns; unsafe actions will not be tolerated.
11. Represent Positively: Behave in a way that reflects well on the team, league, and community, including on social media; bring concerns to coaches first, as coaches and the organization are committed to kindness, respect, and excellence.
12. Promote Fun and Learning: Help your child enjoy baseball, learn from mistakes, and contribute positively.

Consequences for Violations

Violations will be handled on a case-by-case basis. Coaches will discuss issues with the parent and player. Further action may include reduced participation, restriction from events, or other measures based on the violation's severity.

Your Commitment

By signing below, I agree to follow this Parent Code of Conduct and support a respectful, safe, and positive environment for all in the Lightning Baseball program.
