

Code of Conduct Parent/Guardian

In addition to the Code of Conduct Player, parents will:

- Complete Respect in Sport Parent Program as required by governing bodies.
- Refrain from behaviour that constitutes harassment, where harassment is defined as conduct, gestures, or comments which are insulting, intimidating, humiliating, hurtful, malicious, degrading or otherwise offensive to an individual or group of individuals.
- Support the game of hockey.
- Encourage players and coaches to play by the rules and resolve conflict without resorting to hostility or violence.
- Respect the 24-hour Cool Down Period.
- Avoid spectator-imposed pressures to win.
- Be supportive of players, teams, coaches, bench staff, Executive, opponents, and officials.
- Respect the decisions and judgements of officials and encourage players to do the same.
- Refrain from negative communications with players, coaches, bench staff, timekeepers, officials, association, or tournament administrators.
- At no time should a parent go to the timekeeper's bench/penalty box area or approach the players bench area. This includes during the warm-up, intermission, during and after the game, including opponents' area.
- At no time should a parent approach officials or enter officials' room for any reason. Actions will result in immediate suspension or possible suspension of bench staff.
- Parents who volunteer in scorekeeper/timeclock or penalty box will remain neutral and respectful towards players, bench staff and officials
- Will not participate in or initiate any bullying, intimidating, harassing, or abusive behavior in any form (i.e. verbal, physical, or through the use of electronic applications such as email, social media, etc.) as we understand it to be unbecoming and harmful behaviour

WE agree to abide by the above principles and agree to abide by the rules, regulations, and decisions as set by KDMHA. Failure to abide by this Code of Conduct may result in disciplinary action, suspension, or release from Association membership.
