What We Are Looking For

HW is seeking enthusiastic, motivated individuals who meet the required Hockey Saskatchewan coaching certifications at the applicable level.

Successful coaches will demonstrate:

- Commitment to athletes' physical and mental well-being
 - Strong leadership and communication skills
 - Integrity and professionalism in working with players, families, officials, and partner organizations.
 - A development-first mindset

Key Responsibilities

Head Coaches will:

- Work collaboratively with the HW Board of Directors, Division Director, and Executive Manager to support age-appropriate development programming.
 - Attend and assist with fall evaluations and development sessions.
 - Prepare and execute a comprehensive season plan, including:
 - Practice plans
 - Game strategies
 - Player development tracking
 - Off-ice programming (nutrition, mental performance, dryland training, video review, and ongoing skill development)
 - Attend HW Coaches Meetings as required.
 - Support long-term program alignment by collaborating with other coaches within the association.
 - Attend league meetings as required (including scheduling meetings)
 - Provide a Criminal Record Check and Vulnerable Sector Check upon selection.

Additional Information

- Applications from both parent and independent coaches will be accepted.
 - All things being equal, independent coaches at the AA level are encouraged.
 - Compensation will be considered for non-parent coaches.

How to Apply

Interested candidates must complete the Coach Application Form available on the Hockey Weyburn website.

📅 Application Deadline: March 16, 2026
